

Audry Neeley
Art, Architecture & Design Scholarship

This scholarship was established in memory of Audry Neeley, a student of Whitko High School that lost a battle with cancer her junior year of high school.

Audry loved and excelled in art. Her family and friends established this scholarship as a lasting tribute to her love of art.

This scholarship is available to a Whitko High School senior, seeking a degree in art, design, or architecture (including art education).
