THE WHITLEY COUNTY KOREAN WAR VETERANS MEMORIAL SCHOLARSHIP

The Whitley County Korean War Veterans Memorial Scholarship was established in honor of Whitley County individuals who served their country in the Korean War. The scholarship is also a means for memorializing their contributions to the freedoms taken for granted each day. This is a one-time, non-renewable scholarship.

An applicant for this scholarship should be a graduating senior from a Whitley County high school, should have a GPA of 2.5 or better, be in the top 75% of his/her class, and should be planning to attend a vocational school to receive an Associates Degree or equivalent certification.
